

Sabin Americana, 1500–1926

“The images are superb, and can be resized or reformatted for reading. Users can e-mail links and print a maximum of 50 pages at a time. Most likely to acquire this resource are large university libraries; four-year colleges and consortia should acquire it for the benefit of upper-level history students. Summing Up: Recommended.”

— Choice, July 2006

Sabin Americana, 1500–1926 offers an up-close perspective on life in the Western Hemisphere, encompassing the arrival of the Europeans on the shores of North America in the late 15th century to the first decades of the 20th century. Covering a span of 400 years in North, Central and South America, and the West Indies, this easy-to-use digital collection highlights the society, politics, religious beliefs, customs and momentous events of the time. Users will have quick access to books, pamphlets, broadsides and documents from an assortment of genres — from sermons and political tracts to legislation and literature.

Sabin Americana, 1500–1926 offers researchers and students the opportunity to explore topics and concepts quickly and deeply. The easy-to-use interface leads researchers to a magnificent library of primary sources, giving them a chance to bring ideas, facts and interpretations together in ways they never would have thought possible using traditional research methods.

FEATURES:

- Easy-to-use interface
- 6.2 million pages of text
- Access to 29,000 full-text works
- Hard-to-find primary sources that offer original accounts of exploration, settlement, the Western movement, military actions, Native Americans, slavery and abolition, European relations with Caribbean and Latin American

SEARCH FUNCTIONALITY:

Sabin Americana, 1500–1926 offers basic and advanced search options: users can search among or within specific works, view the results of their full-text searches on facsimile pages from the original works, save their lists of results, specific pages or works using InfoMark technology, e-mail citations of selected works, or print and download portions of the works themselves.

A screenshot of the Sabin Americana search interface. The header includes the title "Sabin Americana 1500-1926" and logos for Thomson Gale and InfoTrac. Below the header are navigation tabs for "Basic Search", "Advanced Search", "Browse Authors", and "Browse Works". The "Basic Search" section contains a search input field with the prompt "Enter your search term(s) below. Use quotes for exact phrases.", a "Search type" dropdown menu set to "Full Text", and "SEARCH" and "Clear Form" buttons. Below this is a "Limit by:" section with a "Year(s) of Publication:" field (set to "0000-9999") and a checkbox for "Include documents with no known publication date." There is also a "Number of results per page:" dropdown menu set to "10". At the bottom, there are links for "Help", "Search Tips", "Thomson Gale Databases", "Contact Thomson Gale", and "Comments", along with the Thomson Gale logo and "Copyright and Terms of Use" link.

Sabin Americana, 1500–1926

TOPICS COVERED:

This vast digital collection, drawn from Joseph Sabin's Bibliotheca Americana, includes the following topics:

- Discovery and exploration of the Americas - accounts from British, French, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch and Danish explorers
- Colonization - features both American and European views of colonization and first-hand accounts of colonial life in the U.S., Caribbean and throughout Latin America
- Slavery - memoirs of life under slavery, including original speeches, lectures, sermons, discourses, papers and reports written to the legislatures across America; pamphlets, reviews of the day, books and international essays express both pro- and anti-slavery sentiments in the U.S. and Caribbean.
- Cities and states - the social and political evolution of America's major cities and key states
- Civil War - a wide array of local, national and international memoirs, political tracts, published legislative proceedings and broadsides that detail the rise and resolution of this conflict
- Reconstruction - records that describe the re-organization and re-establishment of the seceded states in the Union after the Civil War
- Politics - the story of the birth of campaign literature during the 18th and 19th centuries
- American women - the education, civil rights, domestic life and employment of women, as well as individual biographical studies
- Native Americans - essays, booklets, treaties, land tracts, congressional speeches, journals and letters that document the social attitudes and dealings with indigenous populations. Also included are materials in indigenous population in Latin American and the Caribbean
- Immigration - pamphlets, broadsides, speeches, articles and books that describe immigration to the Americas
- Constitution - pamphlets, letters, speeches and essays provide detailed information about the early political organisation of the American colonies and framing of the Constitution

Sabin Americana, 1500–1926 is an essential research tool for American studies and colonial history, providing an interdisciplinary perspective on American society, culture, history and politics.

FREE TRIAL — For more information or to request a free trial of this unique collection, please contact your Gale Sales Representative or visit www.gale.com/GDCTrial.

DJ/SM 06/07 GML30407