“Make the world better.” — Lucy Stone’s last words to her daughter, Alice Stone Blackwell

“On the whole, the Macmillan Profiles Series will be useful in libraries that serve young adults, grades seven and up. The information is good and the features excellent.”

—Booklist / Reference Books Bulletin (1999)

The Macmillan Profiles Series introduces students to an incredible variety of individuals who have left their mark on history. The Series also includes volumes on historical places, myths and legends, disasters, holidays and more. Each volume features an appealing format and includes timelines, quotations, sidebars, margin definitions and a glossary.

NEW IN THE SERIES:

Justices of the United States Supreme Court

NEW TITLE The justices who serve on the Supreme Court play a vital role in the life of American democracy, especially in light of the recent presidential election. From John Jay, America’s first Chief Justice, to William Rehnquist and the eight associate justices who serve today, this volume shows how every justice came to serve on America’s highest court. Sidebars in this volume describe landmark decisions.

Asian American Portraits

NEW TITLE Asian Americans have contributed to all areas of American life, from popular culture and music to the sciences and literature. This Profiles volume focuses on individuals whom students have probably heard of but know little about, such as Isamu Noguchi, Vera Wang, Michelle Kwan, Yoko Ono, Dinesh D’Souza, George Takai, Connie Chung, Yo-Yo Ma and many others.

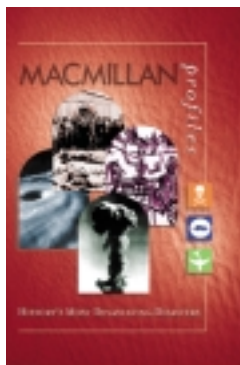

1st Ed. 400 pp. Ready October 2001.
ISBN 0-02-865636-9. Order #MML15300-173732.

Photographers and Filmmakers

NEW TITLE Whether browsing newspaper and magazine covers or viewing the mesmerizing special effects of movies like Star Wars, we rely on photographs and film to inform our view of the world and to spark our imaginations. This Profiles volume presents biographies of influential photographers, directors, animators and video artists, including Akira Kurosawa, Alfred Hitchcock, Ansel Adams, Margaret Bourke-White, Louise Daguerre, Orson Welles, Tex Avery and many others.

History's Most Devastating Disasters

NEW TITLE Disasters, whether caused by nature or by human actions, are an integral part of history. Is there any way to prevent disasters? How do people respond to them? Among the many disasters explored in this volume are: the eruption of Vesuvius in 179 A. D.; the Great London Fire of 1666; the 1999 tornado outbreak in Oklahoma; the 1906 San Francisco earthquake; the crash of TWA flight 800 off the coast of Long Island in 1996 and the recent sinking of the submarine, Kursk.
